Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Today we celebrate the 5th Sunday of Lent, and we realise that Holy Week is only a week away. We continue to prepare ourselves for the celebration of the paschal triduum... the passion, crucifixion, death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus. It is important for us to remember, and to contemplate all that Jesus went through for the sake of God's love for us. Last Sunday we heard Jesus say to Nicodemus: For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that whoever believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life (Jn 3:16). God loved the world... not just believers and nice people, but also those far away from Him, including those who persecuted him, and continue to persecute fellow human beings and bring suffering upon themselves and others. Such is the greatness of our God.

Our response... We love, because God loved us first (1 Jn 4:19). How can I not love my neighbour when I remember how much God loves me? Surely, it does not mean that I agree with, or I applaud my neighbour in whatever they say or do. It just means I need to continue to love them because God loves me, and He loves them too.

This week you are all invited for our Lenten Mission, from Tuesday 19th to Friday 22nd March, at 7:00-8:00pm, in church. We will pray, listen, watch, and enjoy some time for silent reflection and blessing. Let this be our final preparation before we enter Holy Week. See you.

God bless you.

EASTER FLOWERS

If you would like to make a donation to help with the cost of Church flowers for Easter, please place your donation in an envelope with the words "Easter Flowers" on the front and give to Father or the Parish Office. Thank you for your generosity.

5th Sunday of Lent

Reflect, today, upon the ways in which God is calling you to the cross. As you do, don't allow fear to deter you.

Instead, look at every pending suffering as an opportunity to glorify God in your life. See your crosses with gratitude and joy and allow this new perspective to give you the strength you need to fulfill the mission given to you by the Father in Heaven.

Most glorious Father, Your will is perfect. You called Your Son to the suffering of the Cross. Through that act of perfect love, the suffering Your Son endured gave You perfect glory. Lord Jesus, please give me Your courage as I face my own sufferings in life and help me to imitate Your perfect obedience to the Father's will in all things so that I, too, may give Him glory. Jesus, I trust in You.

Increase your prayer and reflection life during Lent this year.

One important way of coming closer to Jesus is prayer. For this reason, during the season of Lent, on Friday evenings, at 7:00pm, we will be having a prayer or reflection opportunity.

Friday 22nd March – Lenten Mission including Mass (in English)

Friday 29th March - Good Friday

Save the dates. More details will follow. Everyone is welcome. Let us make Lent a truly prayerful season.

Altar Server meeting for Easter

There will be a meeting on Saturday the 23rd of March at 10am in the Church for altar servers who are interested in serving for our Easter Triduum this year. If you would like to Altar serve during these special says and cannot attend the meeting, please let Amanda know on 0438 514 304.

Lenten Mission - Jesus and friends!

Previously known as the Maltese Mission (Ezercizzi tar-Randan), this year's Lenten Mission will be delivered in English.

As we approach the celebration of the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus, we become more aware of the fact that we are not as close to Him as we would like to be. There is so much that pulls us away. Wouldn't it be nice to encounter Him face to face as some people did? Their encounter with Jesus had a profound effect on their lives. They surely have something to share with us! Save the dates and time.

Tuesday 19th to Friday 22nd March 2024

At 7:00pm (finishing by 8:00pm)

THE VEILING OF CROSSES FOR THE LAST TWO WEEKS OF LENT

The custom of veiling the cross and crucifix during the last two weeks of Lent comes from the former liturgical calendar in which the Passion was read on the Fifth Sunday of Lent (hence called "Passion Sunday") as well as on Palm Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday of Holy Week, and Good Friday. For this reason the period following the Fifth Sunday of Lent was called Passiontide.

The veiling of the crucifix and cross alerts us to a special time. The last 2 weeks of Lent are supposed to be times of intense preparation for the Lord's Passover. It is a forceful reminder for us to get ready. These last 2 weeks of Lent are a reminder of Jesus' final days and so we need to be aware of our Lenten journey and how it has changed our hearts.

Proclaimers of the word and Eucharistic Ministers for the Easter Triduum.

LITURGY OF THE WORD - 5th Sunday of Lent

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:31-34

A reading from the Prophet Jeremiah

See, the days are coming - it is the Lord who speaks - when I will make a new covenant with the House of Israel and the House of Judah, but not a covenant like the one I made with their ancestors on the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt. They broke that covenant of mine, so I had to show them who was master. It is the Lord who speaks. No, this is the covenant I will make with the House of Israel when those days arrive - it is the Lord who speaks. Deep within them I will plant my Law, writing it on their hearts. Then I will be their God and they shall be my people. There will be no further need for neighbour to try to teach neighbour, or brother to say to brother, 'Learn to know the Lord!' No, they will all know me, the least no less than the greatest - it is the Lord who speaks - since I will forgive their iniquity and never call their sin to mind.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 50:3-4. 12-15

RESPONSE: Create a clean heart in me, O God.

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:7-9

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

During his life on earth, Christ offered up prayer and entreaty, aloud and in silent tears, to the one who had the power to save him out of death, and he submitted so humbly that his prayer was heard. Although he was Son, he learnt to obey through suffering; but having been made perfect, he became for all who obey him the source of eternal salvation.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: John 12:26

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!

If you serve me, follow me, says the Lord; and where I am, my servant will also be.

Glory to you, Word of God, Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel: John 12:20-33

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. These approached Philip, who came from Bethsaida in Galilee, and put this request to him, 'Sir, we should like to see Jesus.' Philip went to tell Andrew, and Andrew and Philip together went to tell Jesus. Jesus replied to them:

'Now the hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. I tell you, most solemnly, unless a wheat grain falls on the ground and dies, it remains only a single grain; but if it dies, it yields a rich harvest. Anyone who loves his life loses it; anyone who hates his life in this world will keep it for the eternal life. If a man serves me, he must follow me, wherever I am, my servant will be there too. If anyone serves me, my Father will honour him. Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say: Father, save me from this hour? But it was for this very reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name!'

A voice came from heaven, 'I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.'

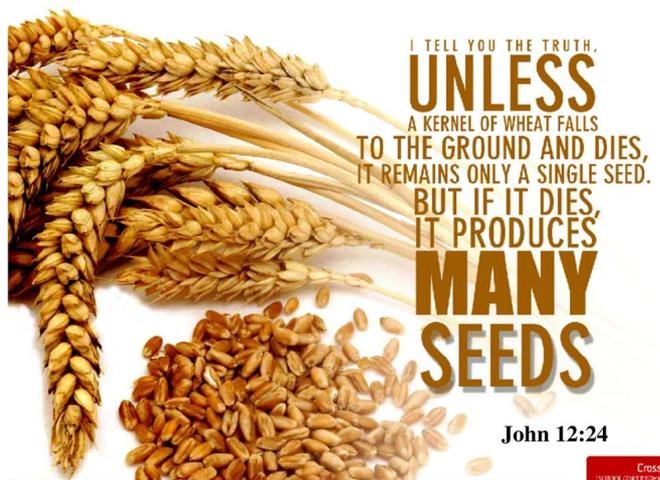

People standing by, who heard this, said it was a clap of thunder; others said, 'It was an angel speaking to him.' Jesus answered, 'It was not for my sake that this voice came, but for yours.'

'Now sentence is being passed on this world; now the prince of this world is to be overthrown. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I shall draw all men to myself.'

By these words he indicated the kind of death he would die.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
